OUR LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the dignified eighth grade class, better known as the school's Brain Babies, being of sound mind, we hope, and quite adolescent in maturity, do bequeath and confer the following desirable and undesirable physical and mental possessions:

TO WIT:

I, Joan Randall, being a bit demanding -- with tact, do confer upon you, Emma Jean, all my ardent love for upper classmen, and my angular shape, if I have any, Anona, that is yours. My yen for science I give to Brent. Roger, you may have my tumbling ability.

I, Floyd Bushman, doth bestow upon Roge Porter my power of concentration and my masculine form -- improve both. Brent you may hav my girl friends.

I, Rosie Castanada, do leave without re strictions all my books, pencils, papers, poo grades, and unfinished work to Fred and Brent Also while I feel so liberal, you may have m ability to cause a scuffle in the hall -- with th good advice, "Don't relinquish a vigil eye f the Principal." Always act innocent.

I, Maurice Westover, leave to the aspirin Raymond Pooley, my great philosophical min and spelling ability. To Boyd I leave my athleti achievements, but will take my love for Gwend Lynn with me to improve, cherish, and hold for ever.

I, Gwenda Lynn Webb, leave my untirin gab to Judy and Emma Jean (I have ample fo both). Anona, you may have my upper lip mole May it ever be a guide for Boyd's kisses.

Reflections

●Almost a quarter of a century has passed since USECO published its first school annual. As we review those pages of yesteryear, a pleasant thought comes to mind—on some tomorrow this, the nineteen hundred and fifty-five edition, will take its place in your heart as a pictorial history of the "good ole' days."

We know this book will increase in value with the passing of each year, and are honored to have played a part in recording it.
